

Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) Exclusion and Deportation files at the National Archives

Zack Wilske

Do you have an immigrant ancestor who was held on Ellis Island? An old family story about a relative who was “sent back to the old country?” If so, there may be a record in the Archives. This presentation will use case study examples to introduce family historians to INS exclusion and deportation files (1893–1950) now in the National Archives. Viewers will hear tips for determining if a record may exist, learn the best ways to search for exclusion and deportation files, and see sample files from immigrants eventually admitted, excluded, or deported.

Important Things to know:

Definitions:

Exclusion is the refusal of admission by a Board of Special Inquiry at a port of entry

Deportation is the removal of an alien already in the United States

Not all deportation and exclusion records survive.

If the event occurred after 1892 there is a chance records may still exist:

- Exclusion files exist only for cases appealed to INS headquarters in Washington, DC (a small percentage).
- Deportation files exist for warrants issued between 1903 and 1944
- Exclusion and Deportation files may have been consolidated into another INS files

Important Things to know:

The files discussed today are part of:

Record Group 85, Records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (RG 85)

Entry 9, Immigration Policy and Correspondence files (1906-1956)
(NARA ARC Identifier 559947 / MLR Number A1, 323, A1, 9-A)

Location: National Archives (NARA), Washington, DC

The USCIS Genealogy Program maintains a name index to historical immigration records, including the case and correspondence files at the National Archives (Entry 9 of RG 85).

The USCIS Name Index includes many names not found in the Subject Index on ancestry.com.

Researchers who believe an exclusion or deportation file exists for an immigrant should first search the subject index and, if no results, request a USCIS Genealogy Program Index Search.

- A I knew that I lived here all that time.
- Q You have nothing to show that you have lived here - you have no American papers to show that you were here.
- A I have a contract here. That contract is good until the 31st of May.
(Alien shows an agreement, dated November 31, 1918, between Benj. Cohen, Herman Kirch, Samuel Levenberg and Alfredo Corredori, to run a dance hall in Philadelphia)
- Q You never took out any papers to become a citizen - no first papers, did you?
- A No, sir.

Q Why did you stowaway?

A I stowed away because I had no trade in Italy and over here I have. I like this country fifteen times better than Italy. When I first left Italy I was only thirteen years old and I have heard so much about Italy I thought I would go there and see it.

Q Do you remember the date of your first arrival in the United States?

A I remember the name of the ship, the Taromina, a couple months before Christmas, 1908, landed at Philadelphia, Pa.

The Board is of unanimous opinion that the alien is a person properly excludable under Executive Order of July 26, 1917, having in his possession a passport not visaed by an American Consul, arriving here as a stowaway and that he is a person likely to become a public charge.

Q You are advised, however, that from this decision you have the right of appeal to the Secretary of Labor, do you wish to avail yourself of that right?

A Yes, I will file my appeal at once.

UNANIMOUSLY EXCLUDED.

Q State your name, age and occupation? A EDWARD ALFRED DORKINGS, I am 33 years

Q I came over on the "Titanic" in 1912.

Q I went to see the American Consul and he sent me to the British Consul and when

Q Then what did you do? A Then I went down to Beaumont, Texas and made a trip over to England on the s.s. "Steadfast", a freighter. I returned on that boat and was paid off and discharged at Beaumont, Texas and that was about 1904 and since that time I have been a seaman.

Q Did you sail coastwise or foreign? A Practically all the time coastwise, sailing up and down the east coast.

Q What was the last ship you signed on? A The "Ethan Allen".

Q When and where did you sign on the "Ethan Allen"? A At Port Arthur, Texas, about December 15, 1925.

Q Where did you go on that boat? A I came to Honolulu, then to Yokohama, Kobe, Manila, and Legaspi, P.I.

Q When did you come to Honolulu on that boat? A It was January 1927, about the 16th I guess.

Q Where did you leave the "Ethan Allen"? A In Legaspi, P.I.

Q Were you paid off and discharged? A Yes, and that was March 5th. There was a can of paint missing on the ship and I got the blame for it and got thirty days in jail. The Captain left my money with the Commissioner there and after I got out of jail the "West Kader" came and I went up to the Captain and asked for a job. He said he had no opening but he would take me on as a workaway. Previous to that I had already asked the Commissioner if he would sign the necessary articles if I could get a job and he said he would. I went down to the Commissioner with the Captain and the Commissioner wouldn't sign the necessary articles. So I sold my clothes to get some money to go to Manila. The Commissioner there told me that the only thing I could do was to ship back on a transport, and if I could get a job he would sign the necessary papers. I told him my condition and that I had no money and he said he couldn't do anything for me in the way of putting me up but if I went to the Captain of Police he would put me in jail and keep me there until the transport came in. The transport wouldn't come in until May 2nd

10-10415 U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

TO DEPORT YOUTH.

Member of Family Lost in Titanic Disaster To Be Returned.

Des Moines, Aug. 8.—Jules Lefebvre, 15 years old, whose father and two brothers in this country were ordered deported to France, was brought to Des Moines yesterday afternoon by S. F. Whitfield, United States Immigration inspector, who arrested him a few days ago while he was working in the coal mines near Mystic. He will be detained here until the Washington authorities advise the local immigration officials as to the time of sailing of steamers for Europe.

Jules is deported on the ground that he likely will become a public burden. His father was deported from Centerville, where he lived with Mme. du Pont, a French woman, his paramour. The father, Frank Lefebvre, brought Mme. du Pont to this country from France and left his wife and four other children at home in France, and lived with her at Mystic.

The father sent to France for his wife and four children and they set sail on the lost Titanic, which went to the bottom of the Atlantic with practically all its steerage passengers. He appealed to the relief authorities in Chicago, who were helping the relatives of the drowned, and the authorities investigated and learned of his domestic relations. The government prosecuted and the father, the Du Pont woman and the father's two sons were sent back to France.

Jules is deported on the ground that he likely will become a public burden. His father was deported from Centerville, where he lived with Mme. du Pont, a French woman, his paramour.

Deportation
File

This case was called to our attention a short time ago by the Relief Agent at Chicago to whom the alien had applied for aid out of the funds provided for the relief of the distressed families members of whom had been lost on the SS "Titanic". This alien is reported to have lost his wife and four children on that ill fated vessel.

Letter from Immigration Service Inspector at Centerville, Iowa to Immigration Service HQ, re: Frank Lefebvre, July 13, 1912.

Lefebvre is applying for relief money for families of Titanic disaster survivors – his wife and four children were aboard and perished, but his story raises suspicions.

Investigation reveals LeFebvre that traveled to U.S. under an assumed name with another woman posing as his wife.

Report of Findings to Immigration
Service HQ

I have the honor to transmit herewith a formal application for warrants of arrest for FRANK LEFEBVRE, alias HENRY DUMOURTIER, MARY or MARTHA DUPONT, alias DUMOURTIER, ANSELM LEFEBVRE and LEA DUPONT, which

Mr. Whitfield, upon investigation, finds that when Lefebvre was unable to obtain any more money from his mistress, he forced her out of his home, where they had been living in illicit cohabitation, and the woman is without means of support for herself and child, except her meagre earnings as a servant, while Lefebvre is a drunkard and ne'er-do-well; and without doubt all of these people were persons likely to become public charges at the time of landing.

The USCIS Genealogy Program offers two services:

INDEX SEARCH: (FORM G-1041)

Using biographical information provided by the researcher, USCIS searches its historical immigration and naturalization record indices for citations related to a specific immigrant. The search results (record citations) are returned to the researcher, along with instructions on how to request the file(s) from USCIS, the National Archives, or local courts.

Researchers who do not have a valid USCIS file number citation, who are unsure whether USCIS holds a record for their ancestor, or who wish to know about every historical USCIS record related to their ancestor, should make an index search request.

Fee: $20.00

Information Required for an Index Search Request

To make an Index Search Request you will need to provide at least the following information about your immigrant ancestor:

- Name (aliases, maiden, and variations)
- Date of birth (actual or estimated)
- Country of birth

You will also be asked to provide optional information, such as date of arrival in the US and places of residence. While this information is not required it is often essential for locating the correct index entries.

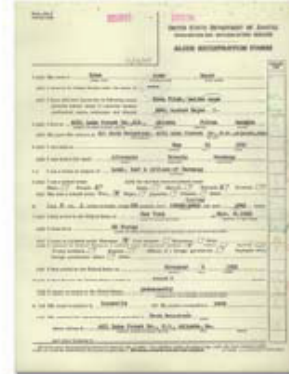

If your ancestor was born less than 100 years ago you will also need to provide proof of his/her death.

Index Search Results

Index Search Requests are responded to by letter, reporting whether or not the search identified a record for the immigrant named.

If so, the letter provides the file number, record series, and any additional information, as well as instructions and applicable fees to request the record(s) from the USCIS Genealogy Program.

In some cases the letter informs researchers of other record citations found, and provides instructions for requesting that record from the National Archives or local courts.

RECORD COPY REQUEST: (FORM G-1041-A)

Researchers with valid USCIS file number citations gained through a USCIS Genealogy Program index search or through independent research may request copies of historical immigration and naturalization records.

Fees depend on record format:
$20.00 (Microfilm)/
$35.00 (Hard Copy)

Information Required for a Record Copy Request

The USCIS Genealogy program can only fulfill record requests that include a valid file number, such as a naturalization certificate number. Most researchers will receive the necessary file numbers from their USCIS Genealogy Program index search results. However, researchers who have located file numbers independently may use them to make a record copy request.

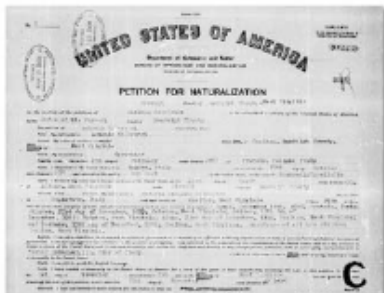

If your ancestor was born less than 100 years ago you will also need to provide proof of his/her death.

If you do not have a file number, or you are unsure whether or not USCIS maintains a file for your ancestor, please submit an index search request.

Records Available from the USCIS Genealogy Program:

- Naturalization Certificate Files (C-files) from September 27, 1906 to April 1, 1956
- Alien Registration Forms from August 1, 1940 to March 31, 1944
- Visa files from July 1, 1924 to March 31, 1944
- Registry Files from March 2, 1929 to March 31, 1944
- Alien Files (A-files) numbered below 8 million (A8000000) and documents therein dated prior to May 1, 1951

For a more information and a complete list of sample file numbers please visit www.uscis.gov/genealogy.

Who Should Request an Index Search?

DO YOU HAVE THE FILE NUMBER?

No – You need an Index Search

Yes – You may request the specific file directly from USCIS or NARA, depending on record type.

However, if you would like to know if additional files exist you may wish to submit an index request

Requesting an INDEX SEARCH

Name:	Required to search the index. In addition to the primary name, provide any known alias, alternate spelling, maiden name, nickname, etc.
Date of Birth:	Required to search the index. Provide at least a year, and indicate if it is an approximation.
Country of Birth:	Required to search the index. Provide at least the country. If old country boundaries changed, provide alternate country names. Province, town or village name may be useful.
Arrival Information:	Helpful when searching for Visa Files and Alien Registration Records. Provide at least a year, and indicate if it is an approximation.
Naturalization Information:	Helpful in identifying C-Files. If known, provide the court name and date of naturalization.
Additional Information:	Additional information may be helpful depending on the date and type of record. Among useful facts are names of parents and children, marriage date, military service, or dates and places of residence in the U.S. For example, several Jacob Cohens born 1882 may have naturalized in 1912. Was yours the one who lived in New York City, in Boston, or in Denver?
